SPECTATORS' INFO:

Despite the Organisers take all reasonable precautions and have put a number of initiatives in place to ensure the safety of spectators, unavoidable accidents may occur. With respect to these, remember that you are present at your own risk.

Spectators have free access to all stages of the 31st Rally of Lebanon.

Please obey the instructions of the Safety Marshals - these volunteers have freely given their time to ensure that you will safely enjoy viewing the thrilling sights of top rally drivers in action. Therefore, please:

- Remain at your position while the special stage is running. Do not leave before the sweeping safety vehicle.

- If you notice anything that needs immediate intervention, please inform the closest marshal.

- Don't get close to dangerous areas, indicated by the marshals.

- Don't stand at places with no escape way, in case of emergency.

- Always stand behind the safety barriers

Don't obstruct the marshals from their duties. If necessary, collaborate with them.

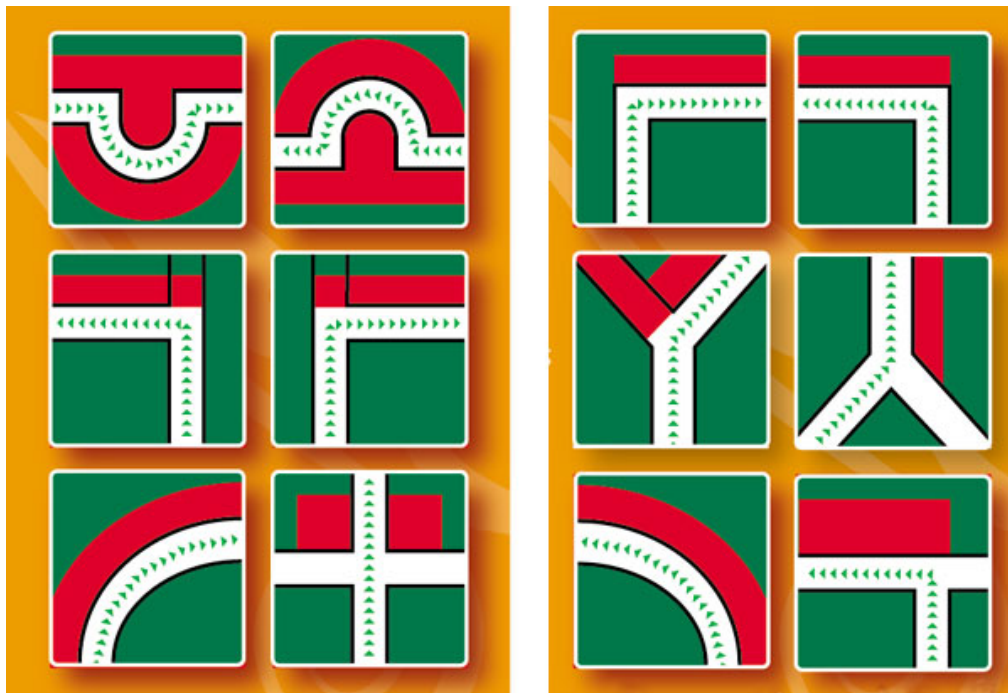

- Don't park your car on a place that could cause traffic jam. Be on alert while driving on the rally route

- Be on time at your pre-selected point.

- Don't get too close to the road. You will have a better view and you will be much safer from a high vantage point.

- Areas in red are dangerous and forbidden! Take a good look at the drawing! Standing on these areas is dangerous for your safety and may cause the S.S. cancellation.
- Protect nature.
- Don't, for any reason, light a fire.
- Watch out for your cigarettes.
- Make sure that you'll take all your garbage upon departure.
